CAREER HISTORY

April 2018 - June 2018

Le Wagon, London

Junior Ruby on Rails Full Stack Developer Bootcamp

Nine week full time web development bootcamp focusing on Ruby on Rails and covering: Git; Git Hub, Ruby, Rails, OOP, MVC, HTML, CSS, Javascript, Ajax, API's, Heroku, Agile Development. On completion of the course I will have a comprehensive skill set as a junior Ruby on Rails Developer and can rapidly acquire further skills and languages to add to my stack as needed. In addition I also have a commercial skill-set including experience outsourcing and managing software development, amazon fulfilment, shopify, drop shipping, e-commerce, payment gateways, Google Ads, Facebook Ads, logo design, product testing and engagement campaigns, design and marketing.

March 2012 – March 2017

Forbes Hare, British Virgin Islands

5 year PQE Solicitor – Commercial Litigation

Advising and leading on the BVI law aspects of Commercial and Insolvency Litigation including Fund Litigation relating to Bernard Madoff, general shareholder disputes involving BVI companies, jurisdictional contests and multi-jurisdictional disputes which contained a significant BVI element. Most recently acting as the Junior at a four day trial (with Adam Solomon QC leading) which involved our South African clients successfully pleading Unfair Prejudice against the majority shareholder. The nub of the judgment was to require the majority shareholder to sell his shares to our clients effectively handing them complete control of the company.

May 2011 – May 2012

Aramid Capital Partners, London

8 months - Business and Legal Affairs Executive

Working as a junior Film Finance Lawyer. Due to the financial crisis in 2008/9 the role pivoted toward fighting litigation commenced by the Fund, and defending litigation against the Fund, relating to movies financed prior to the financial crises. Work included multi-jurisdictional disputes involving asset tracing fraudulent transfers of film rights and involvement in business development initiatives to secure additional income for the Fund. On the commercial side I was involved in managing a product through to Amazon fulfilment and pitching business acquisition and development ideas to the fund managers.

Sept 2008 – Sept 2010

Slaughter and May, London

Trainee Solicitor

Six seats: Corporate (6 months), Corporate (6 months), Finance (6 months), Tax (3 months) and Litigation (3 months). The training contract mainly focused on corporate M&A covering joint ventures, private share sales (Net-a-Porter to the Richemont Group), listings, rights issues proposed Rio Tinto $21bn issue in 2009) and mergers (including the BA / Iberia tie up). The finance seat involved project financing (an Oil Refinery in Cairo), re-financing packages and LMA documentation.
